Current Invitation Body:

Hello John,

John Smith has invited you to the ProtoTest environment on CloudShare - a real, fully-functional hosted online installation, complete with servers, storage, and networking, exclusively for your use.

You can reconfigure the existing installation, add or delete data, install new items, and invite colleagues to your environment to experience your modifications and results for themselves.

Your environment will run for 3 hours once accessed, and you may choose to access it any time before January 20, 2011 6:59 PM

To register and log in now, visit:

<https://use.cloudshare.com/AcceptInvitation.mvc?inv=GWInibOOWOE>

If there are any support questions about the operation and setup of this evaluation, please contact your ProtoTest Sales Engineer, John Smith, at jsmith@cloudshare.com

To make sure your system is best prepared for using CloudShare, you can access the CloudShare test page.

The test page is located at <http://use.cloudshare.com/test.mvc>

Note that some of the tests check connectivity, which can vary between different locations.

Thank you again for trying the ProtoTest environment on CloudShare!
